

Sahar Daniel Hirosh Testimonial

Lisa Fritschy says,

“My life has forever been changed since finding Sahar. I have been working with Sahar for over a year now and feel blessed that I found such a wonderful and talented trainer to help me realize and attain my goals. Sahar is unlike so many others in this “horse world”. He demonstrates integrity when dealing with his clients as well as our horses. Our individual needs and concerns are always first and foremost. His passion and commitment can be seen each and every day. Whether Sahar is helping an adult amateur realize their dreams or showing a client’s horse to its fullest potential, Sahar gives 110%. Sahar has recently helped me find my new dream gelding. I have complete faith in saying we will have a successful journey together because Sahar is there to guide it. I look forward to embarking on this new partnership and am excited to have Sahar’s expertise on a daily basis. I have not met a more caring trainer. I’m so lucky to have him in this area of my life.”
