

Sahar Daniel Hirosh Testimonial

Tricia Chandler said, "I started riding with Sahar several years ago. While I really wanted to learn to ride, I also had a lot of fear. Sahar and his staff have been truly amazing. They have taken me step by step through this process of learning to ride. They have been more encouraging than I could have ever have imagined, and have walked me through the process of learning to ride. I now ride with confidence and have found the true joy in riding that I knew was there all along."
